DIVISION MEMORANDUM

NO: 76 s. 2021

To : SCHOOL HEADS AND TEACHERS OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS
SERVING WHUTHUT AND TONGRAYAN LEARNERS

From : IRENE S. ANGWAY, PhD, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent

Subject : EVALUATION OF CONTEXTUALIZED SELF-LEARNING
MODULES FOR KINDERGARTEN TO GRADE III LEARNERS

Date: MARCH 17, 2021

The Schools Division of Tabuk City Learning Resource Management and Development System, in partnership with the Indigenous Peoples Education Program, will be conducting an evaluation of the teacher-developed contextualized self-learning modules for Kindergarten to Grade III learners on March 18-19, 2021. The venue will be announced later.

The participants to this two-day activity are identified school heads and teachers from all the elementary schools serving the Iwhuthut and Itongrayan learners. They are expected to bring with them their laptops and all the developed self-learning modules for Quarters 1, 2, and 3. They must also bring their face mask and face shield.

All expenses to be incurred in the conduct of the activity except for the transportation of the participants shall be charged against the 2021 Program Support Fund for IPED subject to usual accounting and auditing rules

Compliance to this memo is desired.
